

28 January 1982

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. John N. McMahon
Executive Director, Central Intelligence Agency

John:

This is to invite you to be the speaker at the graduation dinner of the National Defense University's (NDU) National Security Management Seminar to be held at the Fort McNair Officer's Club, Wednesday evening, 26 May 1982 (I've attached a copy of the program for last year's dinner).

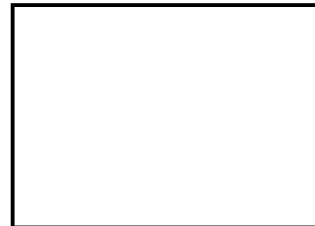

Attendees at the dinner will comprise members and spouses of both the 1st and 2nd year (graduating) classes, seminar leaders and NDU officials--a projected total of some 60-70 people.

The two-year program of the seminar embodies part of the curricula of the National War College and the Industrial College of the Armed Forces (the attached brochures provide greater detail).

If you are willing to be the graduation speaker, a 30-minute or so unclassified talk on "intelligence and national security," "CIA in the 1980s," or some such general topic of your choosing would be quite appropriate for the occasion.

I'd be happy to provide whatever additional details you might wish to have before deciding whether or not to participate. I extend this invitation to you as the chairman of the committee charged with putting this show together. If you agree to participate, you will receive a more or less formal invitation from the seminar director at a later date.
